COWBOY TAKES IT TO THE KINGS

IN FIRST GAME BACK IN L.A.

On January 28, 1972, Bill "Cowboy" Flett was traded from the Los Angeles Kings to the Philadelphia Flyers. Just over a month later, he returned to the Forum — and gave his former team a performance they wouldn't forget.

It was the fourth hat trick of Flett's NHL career. Interestingly, his first three all came against the Detroit Red Wings.

Flett finished 1971-72 with 18 goals between Los Angeles and Philadelphia. A year later, he exploded for a career-high 43 goals.

Some returns are unforgettable.

RARE OFFENSE

Just 19 goals in 787 NHL regular season games. Four were game winners. Only one was shorthanded.

"A quality blue liner who was twice named a Second Team All-Star and helped the Maple Leafs win four Stanley Cup championships in his first five full seasons."

A RESPECTED DEFENCEMAN

- Twice a Second Team NHL All-Star
- Helped the Toronto Maple Leafs to four Stanley Cup titles in his first five full seasons
- Briefly served as team captain in 1956-57
- Played his final NHL season in 1957-58 with Chicago, scoring 4 goals that year (matching his career high)
